

Retelling the Story with Theater

Time: 45 minutes

Materials: One Hen book

Goal: To share what students have learned with each other.

INSTRUCTION

Review the story: Review the story from the One Hen: How One Small Loan Made a Big Difference with students by going through the illustrations, and reading aloud the text on the left-hand side of the page.

Act the story out: Now have students act the story out. Let students volunteer for individual parts like Kojo and his mother. Some students might want to be a hen or a seller from the market.

 Add sound and movement to this activity! You might assign students different sounds, motions, or quotes from the book to repeat as they play their characters throughout the story.*

You might also decide to share this presentation with another class, or even the entire school, perhaps at the end of the unit.*
