

Write a Biography

Purpose: To give an account of someone's life

Your task: To choose someone to write a biography about. It might or might not be someone famous.

We have looked at Kwabeno Darko's life story – the inspiration for the One Hen story.

You can write about someone who is living or dead, real or fictional.

Remember: to include key facts such as:

- Dates of birth
- Significant events in that person's life.
- What they are famous for.

You can include pictures from magazines or the internet and present your work in any way that you feel.

